GAME BACKGROUND

Description of your Games recent History/Setting:

The game has had a lot of growth and a lot of learning in the last year.

Firstly on an OOC level, the game went through a rather turbulent time between a major staff transition in the Spring of 2018, but the transition turned out very smoothly and a lot of progress has been established. The game now has a solid set of House Rules, a good Charter, and the HST has been compiling gifts into a packet that is now over 200 pages between the public (general gifts of Auspices, Breeds, and Tribe) and an ST packet (BSD, rare and ancient stuff). The player base has stayed rather stable with a general turnout of 10 to 14 players every game. The largest issue being translating Renown from Tabletop to LARP, but recently, the staff has mimicked (with permission) the base system of Renown implemented by the established OWBN game DDD.

On an IC level, early in 2018, the PC lead by the Alpha Frostbite attempted and succeeded at creating a Rank 5 Caern, the grandest possible. They faced many foes such as elder vampires, fomor, even Zyzak, the BSD Legend was portrayed by the CBC herself as a guest ST for the large event. The PCs pulled resources and aid from all corners of the country and eventually defeated their main opposition, the Fomorian (graciously given by the Changeling Coordinator) Flygia's Suffering, Herald of the Green Court. There were several sincere casualties.

After establishing themselves, they honorable buried a fallen Fianna PC, Duncan "Strong Arm" O'Hara; however, the traditional burial was interrupted by the leader of the Fianna nation, Bron Mac Fion (graciously loaned for 1 night by the CBC) to make Duncan posthumously Elder and preform the Legendary Rite, Rite of the Hero's Sleep, the grandest honor that can be given by the Fianna tribe and the first PC to receive it in OWBN history.

Around the same time, the Elder known to the nation as Songbreaker ascended to the Rank of Legend (it should be noted that the PC was based in SoC, but the event and goodbye in RaF).

Many trials and tribulations have befallen the new Caern who struggles to balance the old ways as a rag tag grouping of Tribes and Ranks. With a distinct lack of Elders and less experience with Garou society, the young Garou have made many strides toward organization.

Most recently, it seems vampires have been noticed in the city such as the battle of the False Werewolves (Gangrel), the Scraps in the Sewer and the Spirit Quest of the Ancient Wendigo.

Of note, the Wendigo known as Yutu received visions of a native who had bitterly suffered for years. It turned out to be a tribesman (not kinfolk; Impergium target) who was almost slayed by Wendigo, but was changed by a Gangrel. The vampire was a shaman and held the grudge for many years, beginning to freeze the caern from numerous spirit dealings. Until finally given a true warrior's death at the hands of the local Wendigo.

The future of the caern, though uncertain as the future is, seems somewhat bright as strives are made to not only combat the Wyrms, but to find honor, purpose, glory, wisdom, and, hopefully, family.

But not all is well and settled...

The church, though aiding the local people, looms largely as some sort of stronghold. The town, though prosperous, finds some unease in the everyday. Something stalks the buildings, tracking endlessly. And in the subtlest of ways....the very earth seems to almost....churn....

Rage and Fury is located on the border between Ohio and Kentucky in the southwest in what is currently territory of Shadows Over Cincinnati (who have graciously bequeathed the territory would the game be accepted into OWBN)

Background Summary:

Rage and Fury is strictly a Garou genre game. While Fera visitors are generally accepted, other genres such as Vampire, Fae, Mage, Hunter, Mummy, Wraith, and Fallen are typically discouraged. Currently, the PC housed with Rage and Fury are strictly Garou or Kinfolk.

POLITICS OF THE CITY

Current Political Situation/Climate: The current climate of politics is stable, a climate of building greater organization and structure while trying to better grasp the traditions of the Garou nation while trying to deal with the modernity of the times. Though there are no current challenges, some grips have been made over some positions, though Alpha remains uncontested.

you send these when you send your application. Rare and Unique Characters are not necessarily NPCs. OWBN Council likes knowing of them so that the balance of Rare and Unique types of characters is maintained in games.

If you have questions as to if a character is considered R&U please ask the SubCoord working with you or reference the current R&U Bylaws for OWBN.

The following are considered Rare and Unique:

Any Garou Rank 5 (Can be PC) or 6 (must be NPC):

Fera (Can be PC):

The only R&U character housed at Rage and Fury is the NPC Elder Theurge Ki "Nyaalanwi Mskwaawipi", Lupus of the Wendigo tribe. He has no further R&U other than his rank.

Rage and Fury has 1 R&U item associated with it which is the Grand Klaive owned by PC Andrei Griess. It's paperwork will be added to the application.
